“ Alyssa, you had been my closest friend for years though highschool and years after. While we had not been close in the last 10 years or more she will always be in my heart. Lots of memories of late night talks, silly thoughts and inside jokes. The nicknames we gave everything and everyone will always stick with me. Be free and carefree like you had always been meant to be.

“ We never met in person, Alyssa. Only through social media did we connect, initially with your business endeavors. I bought several items from you. We started chatting regularly about a variety of topics, especially our pets. I will always treasure the fairy stone and septarian egg that you gave me. I'm heartbroken. I hope and pray you have peace and are with your Allen again. Love, Mande
