“ Daddy, I miss you so much. I wish we had had more time together. And I wish you could've met Ally and she you. There is still so much I am learning about you. You were a very accomplished man and i wish I could have worked with you and learned from you. I will treasure our memories always. We will never forget you. Time is so short. I pray I will see you again someday in Heaven Love Always, JillJean, Jenny and Anyu, Let's promise to stay more in touch and cherish the time we have together and make each other a priority. I love you all. Jill
