“ My Mom was the greatest mother anyone could have. I just wish someone would have notified me. I was not even mentioned in the obituary. I wish I could have seen her before she passed. My love to my Mom. Ted Copperman

“ I can still remember when I lived with Aunt Betty as a child, playing baseball with Sharon, swinging on the vines in the backyard, scared to death of the geese that seemed to like chasing me and Aunt Betty lauging at me and telling me that the geese wouldn't hurt me. I'm so thankful that I had the chance to see her on my last visit to family in PA. She had more energy then most people half her age and she was such a positive person given the sorrow she suffered during her life. I Love you Aunt Betty and I hope this new journey will be filled with joy and happiness

“ Grandma and I would be together every Monday for the last 15 years. We laughed, we cried, we shopped. Mondays will be alot different now. You can shed tears that Grandma is goneor you can smile because she has lived. You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come backor you can open your eyes and see all she's left... Your heart can be empty because you can't see heror you can be full of the love you shared. You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterdayor you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember her and only that she's goneor you can cherish her memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your backor you can do what she'd want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on. Rest in Peace Grandma, we will miss you.
