“ So sorry to hear about Bruce\'s passing. While we had lost touch over the last few years, he was a longtime friend of mine. We started out fishing together at Edgewater Park over 40 years ago. Went to countless bars and movies together. Bruce came out to Boston to visit me when I was working there for a summer and we had a blast. I have lived out of state for the past 30 years, but we would get together every Fall when I came back to Northeast Ohio to visit. I just found out about his passing today. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
