“ The world was a better place with you in it and it won't be the same without you here. Everyone's life you touched will be saddened by hearing the news of losing you. You were here for us when you could be and didn't have to be and that made you one of the better people in life to have around. You will be missed by all of us. If your family ever needs anything I hope they know all they have to do is call. Knowing the kind of person you were, you are in a better place now, my prayers are with your family. May God comfort them in their sorrowful loss
