“ I knew Danny from daycare as well, I will miss him and his kind spirit. He was such a joy there. I had my last ft call with him just a year earlier and I didn't know he had cancer but we still chatted about one day catching up and go on a guys night but I know he will always be in my heart. Rest easy dude.

“ I just found out about Danny. I am so sorry that I was not at his service. My heart is broken. Danny was such a sweet young man and I loved working with him at Polaris Career Center. I will remember him and your family in my prayers. My sympathies are with all of you. God has another sweet angel by his side.

“ Heaven has gained an Angel. Many hearts are broken today. I am so sorry for this incredible loss, Danny was a remarkable child. He had the biggest heart around, I only ever saw him as a child just wanting to please others around him. When he helped/worked , he threw himself totally in. Never wanting to stop until that job was done. My son met him at daycare. Of course Danny was 4 yrs older. But Logan loved him. He idolized him. Had to have his number for play time, just in case he said. We had his number before we ever met the rest of his family. Our hearts are broken. Rest In Peace, Danny. You will be greatly missed. You will be thought of daily. You were taken too soon. He must have an important job for you to do up there.

“ Daniel had a heart of gold and will be forever missed. While he jokingly asked us social workers for things like a million dollars and a dirt bike, when I actually talked to him about him being eligible for a Wish because of his cancer he said "no thanks, I have everything I need. ". He was always so easy going, never with a complaint despite all he had to go through (except for maybe about the food). He had a beautiful soul and will be missed by many. Rest Easy sweet Danny.

“ My deepest sympathies to the Family. Tracy Raymond and Jarod. I'm so sorry for your loss. I'm very Grateful I got a chance to know Danny. He was smart he could crack me up with his sense of humor but more importantly is that he had a very big hrart. The world lost a incredibly smart down to earth young man. I will never forget him. To all who loved Danny may your memories sustain you until we all meet again.
