

Debra S. Davis

February 25, 2020

Debra "Debbie" Sue Davis, age 66 of Hinckley Ohio, beloved wife of William "Bob" Davis (deceased), mother of Robert (Dayna) Davis, grandmother of Jessy Davis, passed away on February 24, 2020. She is survived by her brother Andrew McIlveen and sisters Patty Mesker, Cindy Bishop and Andrea Boucher. Everyone who knew Debbie loved her in every aspect. She was a loving, silly and kind person, always a joy to be around. She will be missed by many that truly loved her. She enjoyed being in the sun, riding on the back of the motorcycle with her husband and having a cold one at the end of every night. Debbie appreciated all of the family and friends visiting and sharing stories with her during her last days. She was clearly an angel here on earth and will fit in well with all of the angels in heaven.

“ To all of Debbie's family I share in you loss of my longtime friend. Although we haven't been together in a very long time, we had the best teenage times together. We were as close as blood relatives during those days. Debbie and Bob got together back then and you couldn't keep them apart if you tried! I'm sure she is with him today and forever after they will be one again God Bless Joyce Mirka Scolaro

“ Debbie and her sisters were new family members to my brother Ralph and I when my dad married their Aunt Marlene. They were a fun group to be around and holidays were full of noise, music and laughter. I've enjoyed seeing them on a few occasions over the years and always think of the McIlveens as people who were accepting and kind. I'm sad to think of the pain of missing Debbie that will be felt by all who loved her. I know Ralph shares this sentiment.
