

Eugene J. Sziber

August 28, 1932 - January 15, 2026

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Eugene Joseph Sziber, a beloved family man, skilled builder, and devoted member of the Jehovah's Witnesses. Eugene peacefully departed in Cleveland, Ohio, at the age of 93.

Early Life

Born on August 28, 1932, in Holden, Louisiana, to John and Helen (Lesty) Sziber, Eugene was a man of many talents and passions.

Career and Faith

A skilled carpenter by trade, Eugene dedicated much of his life to teaching others the art of construction. He generously shared his knowledge and craftsmanship with countless students, inspiring many with his expertise. His contributions not only transformed the physical landscape around him but also touched the lives of those he mentored. As a devoted Jehovah's Witness, Eugene attended the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses in Parma on Broadview Road, a building he helped to construct.

Hobbies and Personal Life

Eugene had a deep love for nature and fishing, often found casting his line on the tranquil waters of Lake Erie. He cherished these moments of peace and reflection. He found joy in life's simple pleasures and enjoyed spending time outdoors with family and friends.

Family

Eugene resided with his daughter, Sharon, who lovingly cared for him in his final years. He was a proud and steadfast provider, instilling strong values in his children:

Matthew Sziber (wife Patricia Sziber)

Gary Sziber (deceased)

Sharon Grenig

Jeanine Minch (husband Andrew Minch)

Kristin Granakis (husband Ty Granakis)

He was also a cherished grandfather to ten grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. Eugene is survived by his brother, John Sziber, and David Sziber, along with numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorial Service

A memorial honoring Eugene's life will be held via Zoom on a future date.

Details will be shared accordingly.
