Gregory Scott Sheppard II (known to family and friends as Scott), of Cleveland, Ohio, born September 2, 1986, in Canton, Ohio, passed away unexpectedly at the age of 39 on December 1, 2025.

Scott was deeply loved and will be remembered for his kind heart, his contagious personality, and the love he held for his family. He had a remarkable way of making people laugh and helping them feel better about themselves. He always wanted to help others, even if it meant giving up what he needed himself.

He will be profoundly missed by his devoted mother, Linda Rodriguez (née Goormastic); his brother, Bryan Kroll; and his cherished daughters, Jorja Alexis Sheppard, Myla Alexis Kovall, and Delilah Alexis Sheppard, who meant everything to him. Scott was preceded in death by his father, Gregory Sheppard. He is also survived by his beloved nieces and nephew, along with many friends whose lives were forever touched by him.

His family and loved ones were the light of his life, and the impact he made through his warmth, generosity, and humor will never be forgotten. Scott's memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

Private services will be held at a later time at the request of the family. Those who knew and loved Scott are invited to honor his memory by remembering the laughter, kindness, and love he shared so freely.

Tribute Wall

“ I'll never forget the emotions you showed when I gave you the many....many items that you needed for your youngest daughter. You cried for an hour because you didn't believe that you had people in your corner who would offer love and support for a friend never asking for anything in return. Also, the time we were stranded in Knoxville Tennessee when my car blew up. It was hot, we both needed a way home but I got us back and that time and talking drew us close like brothers. I'm sorry, this is posted late. But I wasn't easy for me to find. I'm still new in this area.
