“ I am so glad Jamie is finally at peace with Jesus up above. He is in a much better place and will be well taken care of as he was down here on earth. I am so glad my daughter and son got to spend many times with there uncle Jamie. My son was not even a month old, but I'm glad Jamie was able be with him and meet him. Wish they would have had more time together, but Jesus called for our uncle Jamie. He will be missed very much by sam our children and myself. We love u uncle Jamie. Glad we got to go to dinner at Texas road house the Friday before you passed as it was a pleasure to be with you.

“ I miss my brother very much. I loved him very much. We became so close when I visited him constantly at the various nursing homes where he resided in the past two and a half years. He enjoyed the outings we had and he always made me laugh. I am happy that he is now at peace and without any pain.
