“ Though it has been too many years gone by since I last saw Jay, I always enjoyed his quick wit and humor and admired his kindness. He was a good soul and I am so very grateful to have known him. These times are difficult especially for the family but inevitably we must all return to where we came from where peace and love abound. Karen please accept my condolences for you and the family. Please don't hesitate to reach out if you need anything. With love Scott
