“ Mark and I had the pleasure of spending some time with Jeanne talking around her kitchen table.....mostly surrounded by a pot of "something" cooking on the stove, plates full of Christmas cookies that her and her son Eugene spent hours baking and the pups by her side. She was one fantastic cook, baker, Mother, Grandmother, Sister and friend to many. She will be dearly missed.

“ Jeanne never let the weather keep her from going anywhere. We used to go to bingo on nights when the roads were treacherous. She took me shopping for a dress to wear to my daughter's wedding and we ended up in a tornado. We had Eugene, Jennifer and my daughter with us and drove home with wet seats with glass on them and lots of twigs. Lights kept going out so we had to keep pulling over. Took hours to get home. Good memories. And when my girls were babies Jeanne taught them how to throw mashed potatoes at walls and all over the place. Sure miss you Jeanne.
