I am saddened for the loss of my Uncle Joey. He was a hero of mine. I met you once at your home. I am grateful he had a beautiful life with a wonderful family. I didn't know he was ill. I promise I would have been there. He is now resting with his brothers . Same cemetery. I am very sorry for your loss. He was very special to me as well. My name never changed. Still a Spirko. “ It seems like only yesterday you surprised me at my McDonald's birthday party. You promised you'd come since our birthdays were two days apart. And you did, wearing your army uniform. And now, in this picture, you still look like the man I remember. RIP, Uncle Joe
