“ Josh. I saw a beauty in you that was undeniable. I wish you could have seen yourself through my eyes. I loved you more than I have ever loved. I have enough memories to last a life time. Nobody ever saw us behind closed doors like little kids enjoying life together. Class, couth and confidence always. Im sorry I quit on you. Im sorry I walked away from you. I love you forever and back. Until we meet again,

“ It's still crazy to think you are gone, I will forever remember the happy and fun times, you making crazy jokes and funny faces. (Collin gets that from you!) I'll always see how you tried to salsa dance even though you were not the best at it that never stopped you!! lol There are many songs that will forever remind me of you. Rest Easy Josh, and know that I will be here for our kids through everything. I will tell Collin and Genna stories of you, and your family is helping with that, and helping them to learn things that will help them through this hard time. There is so much more I can continue to say but we had that relationship were we didn't have to talk to know what each other meant!
