

Lynn Para

May 27, 1954 - March 19, 2025

Beloved mother, devoted friend, and woman of unwavering faith, Lynn passed away March 19, 2025, surrounded by the love of those who cherished her most.

Born May 27, 1954, Lynn's life was a testament to kindness, selflessness, and compassion. She dedicated 35 years to teaching children with developmental disabilities, pouring her heart into every life she touched. Her work was more than a job, it was a calling, a reflection of her deep love for others and her belief in the beauty and potential of every child.

Above all, Lynn's greatest joy was her family and friends. She loved fiercely, always putting the needs of others before her own. Her heart of gold and boundless generosity knew no limits. She would do anything for anyone, and she lived her life as an example of faith, grace, and love.

Lynn was preceded in death by her husband Raymond Para; parents James and Mary Volk; and sister Sharyn Nesselhauf.

Lynn is survived by her children Stephanie (Rich) Caldwell and Brandon (Shannon) Stroup; grandchildren Tori, Tia, Kyra, Zeke, Mason, Jared, Avi and Spencer; and sibling Rev. Michael (Judith) Volk. She is also survived by extended family and many friends.

A service to celebrate Lynn's life will be held on Wednesday, April 2, 2025, at Royal Redeemer Lutheran Church located at 11680 Royalton Rd., North Royalton, Ohio. Family will receive friends in the lobby at 10am followed by a service to celebrate her life at 11am. There will be a luncheon in the gathering room following the service. A private interment at Ohio Western Reserve National Cemetery will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made in her honor to University Hospitals Seidman Cancer Center.

“ Lynn was an amazing woman. She welcomed me into her home many times. Always had a great time weather it was out to eat, coffee places or just at her house playing uno or dancing around. You will forever be loved but never forgotten. Rest in peace!
