

Marjorie A. Wallo

November 19, 2018

MARJORIE ANN WALLO (née White), age 78, passed away peacefully with her family on Nov. 17, 2018, after a long battle with Parkinson's disease. Born on April 3, 1940, in Swissvale, PA, she was the daughter of James and Loretta (Wandless) White. She married the love of her life, John Wallo, on June 26, 1965 and they moved to the Youngstown area in 1967, eventually settling in Austintown. As their children grew up, she began work as a secretary at Stan-Jim Homes, later Koch Construction, from which she retired in 2003. A member of Redeemer Lutheran Church in Austintown, she enjoyed cross-stitching, calligraphy, crossword puzzles, and spending time with her grandchildren. Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother, Richard White, and her sister, Norma Rossi. She is survived by her husband, John; her children, Karen (Greg) Rosbough, Pam (Joe) Sommer, and Jeff (Rashel) Wallo; grandchildren, Jared and Regan Sommer, Emerson and Maddyn Rosbough, and Jackson and Brooklyn Wallo; brothers, Bob (Thelma) White and Jim (Aleta) White; sisters, Lois Harencame and Sandi White; sister-in-law, Sue White. Friends will be received on Wednesday, Nov. 21, at St. Paul Lutheran Church, 276 E. Bagley Rd., Berea, OH from 11am-noon, with church services immediately following. Memorial donations in honor of Margie may be made to the The Michael J. Fox Foundation, P.O.Box 5014, Hagerstown, MD, 21741-5014.

“ Prayers for comfort as you grieve the loss of Margie. She was a blessing to this world and will be missed. She was always smiling and kind to this \"pesky little girl from Schley Avenue\". Memories will warm your heart and help you to smile again. God bless.
