

Martha J. Reiff

June 9, 1936 - March 12, 2026

Martha “Marty” Reiff, age 89, passed away on March 12, 2026. She was born on June 19, 1936 to the late George and Germaine Pangrace and preceded in death by her brother, Daniel. She was the loving wife of the late William Reiff for 64 years. She is survived by children Carol (Michael Charney), Marlene (David Marton) and Mark (Kim). Beloved grandmother to Steven Charney (Chelsea Koziatek), Scott Charney (Juliette Thimmig), Andy Marton (Courtney Hughes-Ksenich) and Nicole Marton. She was a teller at Cleveland Trust for many years and in her spare time could be found in her beautiful flower garden. She was an avid crafter as well. She loved all animals, especially dogs and bunnies, having had many treasured pets throughout her lifetime. She took pride in decorating her home both inside and outside for the holidays. Marty grew up in Cleveland and moved to Parma upon marriage, where she made many lifelong friends. She eventually moved to Middleburg Heights, where she happily remained for 54 years and added to her collection of friends. She and her infectious laugh will be deeply missed by her family. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to your local animal shelter or Alzheimer’s research. Graveside services will be held on April 20 at 10:30 am at Ohio Western Reserve National Cemetery.

“ I always had a fun time at Uncle Bill and Aunt Marty's house as a child. When my dad said we are going to Uncle Bill's I always had to ask if it was the store or my uncle's. She will be remembered by many and missed by even more. Blessed journey, Aunt Marty! Love, Cheryl

Most of my memories as a child and young adult of Marty surround celebrating Thanksgiving over her and Uncle Bill's house with the entire family. The food was delicious and she was always so caring and nice. May she rest in peace and may Jesus welcome you home. Love, Rich
