“ Mike was always so independent. He new what he wanted and would go for it. He loved music, musical's, plays, books, art, and sports. Always wore a baseball cap even before he was balding.. As a kid I remember he would ride the rapids and buses as far as they went all day to see sites and where he could go. I will miss him but I know he is happy now and with Billy, Rob, mom, dad, our grandparents and all our other departed relatives and friends. Love you Mike.

“ So many memories of growing up together - where do you start. He taught me how to tie my shoes and all sorts of things left handed which I do to this day and get my left and right mixed up....HAHA Love you my older brother. You hold a special place in my heart.
