

Norman Putt

November 6, 1946 - July 3, 2025

Norman R. Putt Jr. (Butch), age 78 passed away peacefully at home on July 3, 2025. Norman served in the Air Force and the Florida National Guard. Norman was an electrician and also worked in construction. He spent many years living in Florida, but moved back to Ohio to be closer to family. He loved the outdoors, cooking and spending time with his family. He is survived by his brothers Glenn Putt (Lori), Doug Allen (Missy) and his sister Jackie Scheuermann (Brian) and many nieces, nephews and cousins. He was preceded in death by his parents Norval and Seville Allen, brother Steven Allen and sister Laura Putt.

Tribute Wall

JC

“ I shared over a decade of drop in visits with Butch (Norman) and remember how normal and satisfying it was to converse with him on just about any topic, to have a meal, or to let him beat us at Scrabble. Those visits are cherished memories.

Jonathan Clemens - September 01, 2025 at 08:37 AM