

Patricia A. Chumat

August 3, 2018

Patricia Ann Chumat went home to be with the Lord on August 1, 2018, just shy of her 76th birthday. She was born to Martin and Beverly Kane and was a dear little sister to Martin (Kathleen) Kane. The adventure truly began in 1964 when Pat married her beloved Richard. Together they built a beautiful and blessed life, devoted to each other for over 54 years. Patricia is Mom to Tracy, Tom, Ted/Rebecca. She was an attentive and giving Grandmother to Melody (Dan), Hannah, Evan, Carter, and Liam. Pat became a "surrogate" mom to many of her children's friends. She loved her dog Toby who was a faithful companion. Her life was spent devoted completely and unselfishly to her family. Her passions were trips with Richard to Niagara Falls and Mountaineer, lottery scratch-offs, dangly earrings, decorating for the holidays, preparing feasts to share with her family and giving treats or gifts. Her life was all about giving whether it was a beautiful smile to loved ones, candy to the nurses that cared for her or tough advice needed to be heard. She was a sweet and loving soul that her family and many friends on Earth shall miss, but one day we shall all meet again! Private services for family. Memorial mass to be held at St. Thomas More Church in Brooklyn Ohio at 11am on August 10, 2018. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Cleveland APL.
