

Stephanie Miller

February 27, 2024

Stephanie Miller, age 80 of Middlefield, Ohio, passed away peacefully in her sleep, Friday, February 16, 2024. She was born in Boston, Massachusetts on November 9, 1943 to Burton and Olive Miller. Her parents are deceased. She is survived by her sister Pamela Ballard, brother Craig Miller, niece Cecilia Miller, nephews Scott Ballard and Michael Ballard, grand niece Sari-Anna Ballard and grand nephew Tyler Ballard. She graduated from William Woods College and spent her career as a counselor at Consumer Credit Counseling in Cleveland. She spent over 20 years volunteering at Ohman Family Living, also known as Briar Hill Nursing Home. There, she touched the hearts of many residents by delivering mail and running a cooking class. Her stews and chocolate brownies were always in demand. She also maintained an incredible greeting card collection and tapped into it on many occasions to fit just the right card with the needs of her friends and family. Memorial services were private. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to a charity of your choice.

Tribute Wall

JH

“ My daughter Mary & I met Stephanie when she joined Fr. Hogan's bus trip each year. She was a good friend. Each year she would bring a folder of jokes and give it to Father to read to us for entertainment. We took many trips together and we felt like a family. Mary & I offer our sincere condolences to Stephanie's family. She was a good woman and friend. May she rest in peace. Jean&Mary Hollis

Jean Hollis - March 07, 2024 at 05:13 PM

CT

“ My condolences to you and your family. I worked with Stephanie Miller at Consumer Credit Counseling Service she was a good person. May she Rest in Heaven.

Cathy Taylor - March 06, 2024 at 06:39 PM

TM

“ Condolences on behalf of the MacDonald family of Prince Edwsrd Island, Canada

Trudy MacDonald - March 05, 2024 at 05:16 PM