

Toni C. Hartman

June 9, 2022

Toni C. Hartman, age 47 of Medina, Ohio, passed away unexpectedly Sunday, June 5, 2022. Toni was born to Ronald Hartman and JoAnn Oleksik on July 30, 1974 at Fairview Hospital. Leaving behind her four beloved children, Patrick, Ashly, Sarah and Katelynn, above all, her 9 grandkids, along with her four siblings Donald, Michael, Raymond and Sherry. She had many nieces and nephews and a great number of friends in the AA Community. Becoming a grandmother time and time again, was one of her proudest moments! Toni loved and adored her cat, Miss Kitty. She enjoyed taking her bike out in nice weather, listening to music and loved spending quality time with her family during birthdays and holidays, also Camping at Salt Fork State Park, a past time of many memories! A celebration of Toni's life will take place in Parma, Ohio on Friday June 10, 2022 from 1pm and 6pm. Please contact 440-915-1589 for further details on where the Celebration is held.

“ Patrick, Ashly, Sarah and Katelynn, My sincerest condolences on the sudden passing of your mother. She had numerous struggles during her life, but she always loved and cared for her family above everything. May her eternal rest be peaceful and reunited with loved ones. I'm sorry to have missed the celebration of life.

“ Please accept my condolences during this difficult time. Toni was a kind soul who touched many and really was happy when she talked about her kids and grandkids. I'm glad she considered me a friend, sometimes calling late into the night to chat or ask for advice. She will be greatly missed.
