A onetime camera buff and horseshoe player, Bill was an Army veteran, having served during the Korean war stationed in Germany, where he learned his profession of surveying.? Bill was an avid crossword puzzler and reader and played pool with his friends every week for over 60 years.? Bill was a Boy Scout troop master for many years and retired to his woodworking hobby of making toys he created to withstand many years of play.? Originally inspired to make toys for his grandsons, he sold trains, trucks and planes at craft shows in the Cleveland area.? He was also a huge Cleveland Indians fan, watching every game during the season.? He is probably still mad at his son for missing game 7 of the 1997 World Series because he was attending his wedding! Bill remained active even in his later years, still cutting his grass weekly and playing pool with friends at the age of 89!? He will be missed by his family and friends.
